DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to our many returned Veterans who aided in defeating our foreign intolerant foes. It is not only for this reason that we are dedicating this book. We also honor and praise them for their leadership in guiding us to heights never reached here on our campus before. May we say to our Veterans, "Our hats are off to you".

FOREWORD

In order to form a permanent record of the 1946 -1947 school year and to perpetuate the Georgia State College school spirit, we the Senior class of 1947 do hereby present this annual.

We are unable to present the regular type Hubertonian because of the shortage of annual material. However, we sincerely hope that the administration, faculty, students, alumni and friends will find inspiration in this volume.

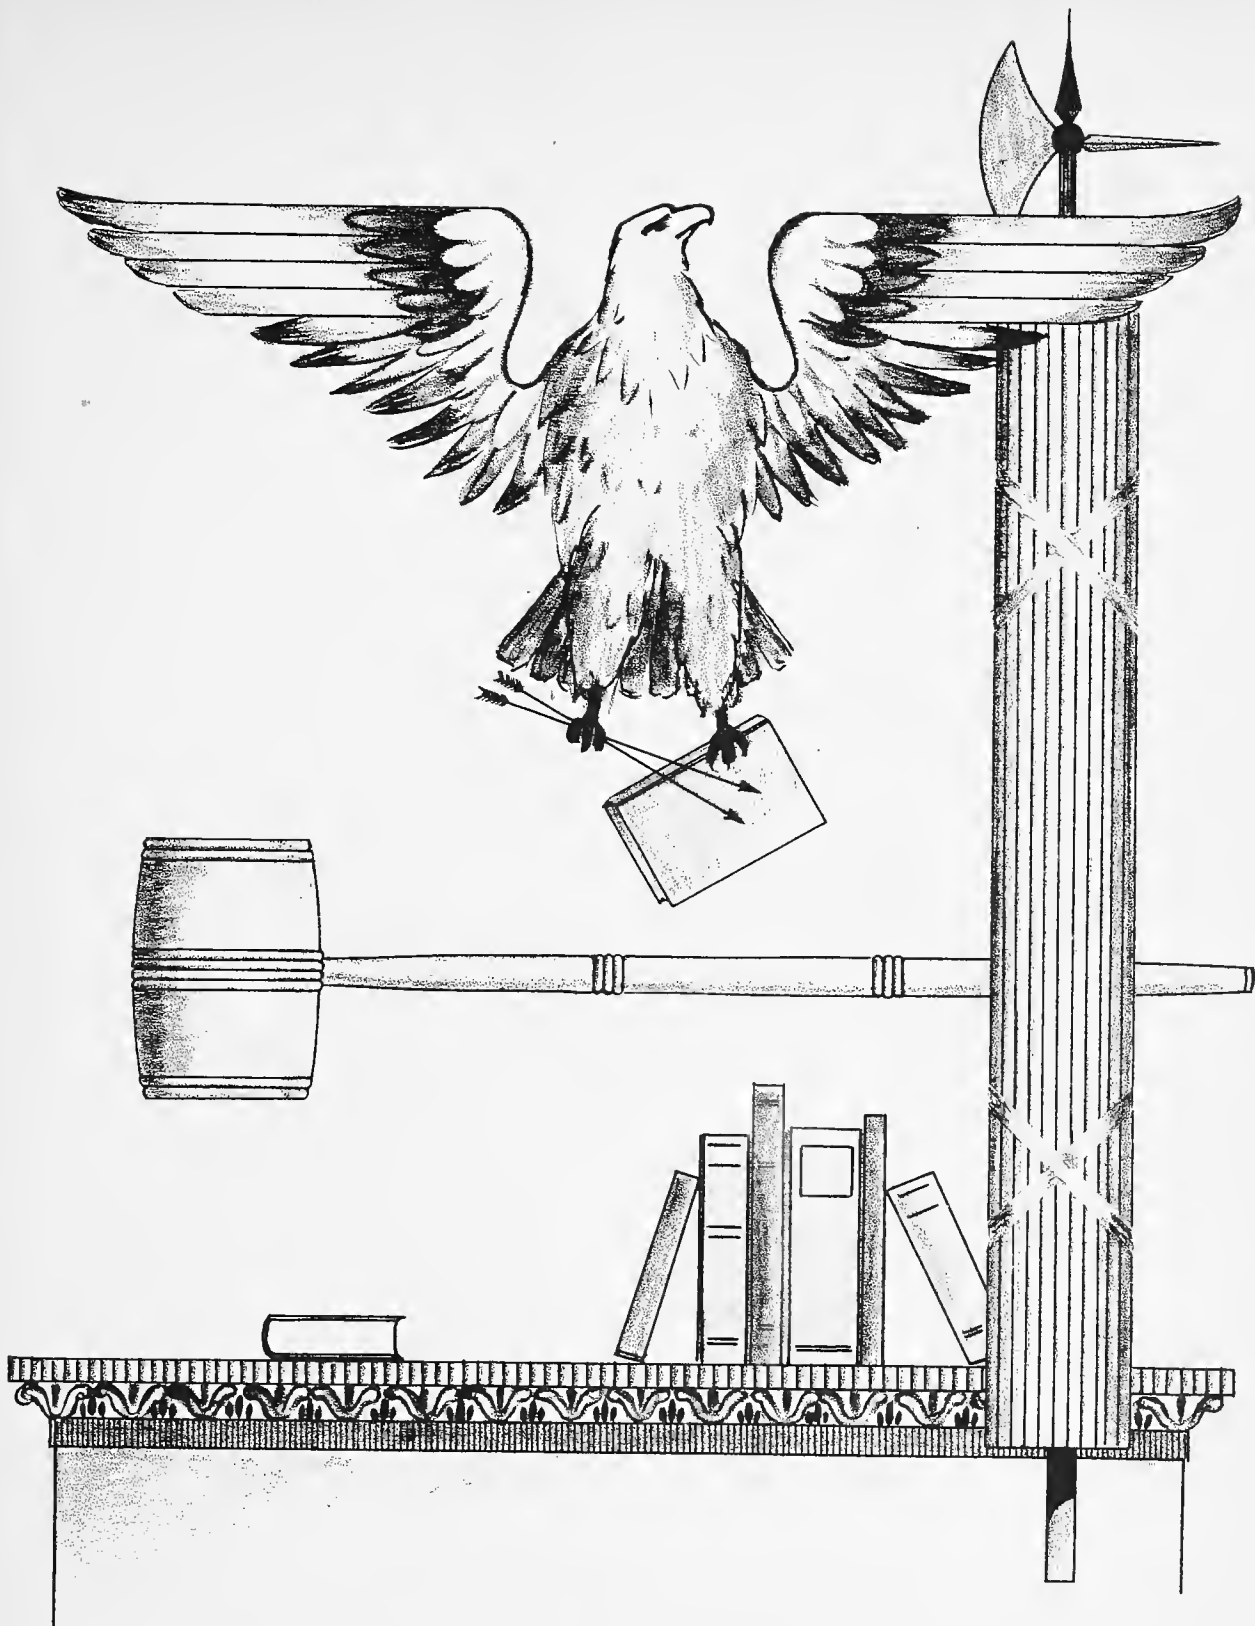

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Staff of the Hubertonian wish to express our deepest gratitude to the following: President Benjamin F. Hubert for his encouragements and wholehearted cooperation - Mr. W. V. Winters, class advisor, for his wise counsel in all matters pertaining to class activities - To the remainder of the faculty, for their assistance in the compiling of information pertaining to the function of various departments - Mr. Samuel Williams, professional photographer, for the group pictures and action shots of the various Athletic games.

The staff also wish to express our gratitude to the student body of Ga. State College who served as the subjects of our records.

Class History

On a certain day in September in the year of 1943, a group of "green", inexperienced, High School graduates came to Ga. State College. The fact that we were "green" did not mean that we were not courageous and ambitious. We came with the determination to make the class of 47' the most outstanding class that had entered Ga. State College.

We first made ourselves acquainted and impressive by giving what was known as a "Freshman Talent Program". We knew that we had a long journey to make, so we gathered our tools and necessary equipment and boarded the ship of knowledge. Very enthusiastic we were. And we were conscious of the fact that we had many years of hard work to do, before we would be ready to step off that ship of knowledge and make our Contributions to the world.

We had very few men on the ship because there was a great war, and many of the men were fighting to save this great country of ours. Among the few men to travel this journey were Fredrick West, Schubert Jenkins, David Carter, Edward Copenny, Edward Robinson, Norman DeLoach, Odell Owens, Charles Conyers and a few others.

We began our journey with Odell Owens as Captain. We sailed on for a short distance; suddenly some began to turn around. The reasons for their turning around are unknown. We regretted to leave them behind, but we had to carry on. We soon discovered that we had great talents. We founded that Charles Conyers and Norman DeLoach were great basketball stars. We learned that Odell Owens was an orator. He compeated against many other students including Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. Did he win? Don't ask that. No one in this class was ever defeated.

The first stop on this journey was Sophomore Island. We stopped here for a short time to rest, for we had been traveling for nine months; we had made great progress. When we began our journey to Junior Island, we had to depart from some of our comrades. Dorothy White and Juanita Tucker got married, Odell Owens went to Morehouse, Edward Robinson and Norman DeLoach were called to the armed forces, and many others departed for reason unknown. At this time David Carter was chosen Captain of the ship to lead the class safely to the next stop. Here, too, is where Essie L. Kirkland, Edward Crawford, Dorothy Nelson, Christina Stewart, Lewis Vaughns and Nathaniel Essie joined us on our journey; We sailed on we discovered that on this ship were people who were destined to be the worlds most outstanding artists, actresses etc. We discovered that Essie Kirkland was a great songstress, Dorothy Nelson was a great actress, Odessa Shanks was the most popular young lady on the campus; she was crowned "Miss Georgia State". Schubert Jenkins was a great dancer, Margerett Fuller was a great pianist and Margurite Whitfield was a great artist. These and other talents made this class the most outstanding class on the campus.

We impressed President Hubert with our anxiety, courage and determination. With David Carter again chosen as Captain, we decided to rest again at Junior Island. Before we set out for Senior Island, what do you suppose happened? Behold! Japan surrendered! The war was over! Our great men of World War II came marching back home. The class had faith that somewhere along our journey, our great heroes and heroines would join us. Before we got half way to Senior Island, we looked back and saw coming with outstretched arms, David Battle, Eugene Williams, John Camper, Grady Latimore, Percy Binford, James Hughes, Fred Glover, Charles Julian, Theodore Allen, Charlie Benniefield and Many Others. We stretched out our arms with warm greetings to them. We realized that the lights had come on again all over the world, and our boys had come home again. How thankful we were! We suddenly knelt on the old ship and gave praise unto God for being so merciful unto us. Now we had many more men to help us on our journey. We were sure that we would land safely.

We worked together and were able to put over one of the most exquisite Junior-Senior Prom the school has witnessed. Now that we had our boys back, there was a Gym full of "guys and gals" the night of the prom. It was a gala affair. At this time we discovered that Percy Binford and Fred Glovers were great vocalists. We feadilly added them to our other group of great talents.

with new inspiration which our veterans had given us, we finally landed at Senior Island. We soon regathered our tools of knowledge and sailed again with John Camper chosen as captain. Here is where a host of other veterans and new comers joined us. Among that group were John Cook, James McMullen, William McMullen, Richard Blaylock, Charles Driskell, William Rivers, Henry Watson, Elouise Pinkney, and many more. Everyone was happy and full of energy. This is when great events occurred; so many that all cannot be enumerated. These events consisted of as much quality as quantity. John Camper organized, and was chosen president of, the first Student Council in the history of the great Ga. State College. The Student Council made tremendous improvements, on and around the campus. John Camper was one of the two persons chosen by the school to represent the college at The National Student Council Meeting in Chicago. Edward Crawford became Editor-in-Chief of the Georgia Herald. Under the editorship of Edward Crawford, the Herald became a monthly issue.

This Senior Class presented one of its members, David Carter, in a musical recital. David Carter was artistically accompanied by one of Ga. State's alumni, Mr. George Welkerson. This Senior class was the first to publish the Hubertonian within six years.

This Senior class is the first within many years to have the front seats in the auditorium reserved for seniors.

James Hughes, Alma Pierce, and David Carter became Chemistry Laboratory assistants. My! My! Have you ever heard of one class during so much?

We "sailed on, and on, and on", toiling in the heat of the day until finally, on the 4th of June, we landed safely and brilliantly on Graduation Island. We were working so conscientiously and enthusiastically that we had almost anchored before we realized we were so near the end of our journey. Then suddenly we realized that it really was the end. We didn't know exactly how to feel. We were glad in one way and sorry in another. We were glad, in that, we were fortunate enough to have made the journey. Now we could give to the world some of the good things that the world had given to us. We were able to get off that small ship and go into this big, wide world and build, explore, invent, and give. We were sorry, in that, we would have to leave our dear Alma Mater with all its fine faculty and President who had helped us so willingly. We had to depart from those who were following us on their own ships of knowledge. In spite of this, we gathered all that we could in our hands; we were sure of what we had in our heads, and we disembarked that good old ship.

Some of us went east and some west, some went north and some south, and many others went to board higher and bigger ships of knowledge. We all waved good-bye to our dear Alma Mater, and we joined in with thankful hearts and loud voices and said:

Good-bye old ship, good-bye,
Sail on old ship, sail on,
We are sure that some day
You will anchor for our products
To step on board,
Please be as kind to them as you
Were to us,
Your kindness to us shall never
Be forgotten,

Class Song

Tune
When the Lights Go On Again

We are leaving G. S. C.
We'll miss our dear school.
Although it's parting time,
We'll remember the rules,
By which we've worked and played
And the accomplishments we've made
Our leaving wont mean goodbye
but so-long for now.

To our President and friends
And our faculty,
We'll always feel we're a
Part of you.
Wherever we maybe,
At work, at school, or at home,
Wherever we may roam,
A memory of you dear State,
With us will linger on.

Class Prophecy

Washington, D. C.
June 8, 1947

Mrs. Earline Montgomery
C/O M. G. M. Studio
Hollywood, California

Dear Earline,

While sitting here on the Patio of the Dempsey Hotel, I decided to write you what our classmates are doing. Ten years ago we all started out on different roads not knowing what our destination would be. And behold! here I am employed as a Clerk Typist at the Mitchell Building.

I was over in New York last week-end and as I was walking down 147th Street, I saw none other than Richard Blaylock and his charming wife Lillian, and can you imagine they have twins. You've heard of babies being born with a "silver spoon" in their mouths-- well their children were born with "silver footballs" in their mouths.

After getting back to Washington to my work in the Mitchell Building, I walked Rosetta Booker, Lucy Brooks, Juanita Lampkin, Juanita Sapp, Johnnie Smith and Thelma Holland. All doing a swell job for our government and happily married excluding Johnnie Smith. I guess you've heard that she has her C.P.A. and is now leaving for the Catholic Seminary to become a Nun. She is through with love and life.

Helen Spence, Orator, Educator and Actress, is now on a tour, lecturing in Switzerland, Belgium, and France, after successfully completing the best picture of the year "The Insignificant Lady".

Believe it or not! Della Walker, Christine Stewart, Lula Evans, Mary Kennedy, Ola Byrd and Annie B. Dixon are Registered Pullman Porters traveling from Boston to Chicago daily. Remember when they sent in their application and waited in anticipation for the reply stating that they were accepted.

Wilhelmina Hardeman has just published her tenth novel which is fast becoming one of the best sellers of the year, titled, "This Road Lead To No Where".

Dr. Alma Pierce, B. S., Litt. A. M., has set up a Chemical Laboratory Plant at Ludewici, Ga. (Yes she is still single.)

Oh Yes, Thelma Bradford has finally met a man that meets her requirements. She is now Mrs. Thelma Scurry. They have Quintuplets and she spends most of her time trying to keep up with Mr. Scurry and the Quintuplets.

Miriam Godfrey has succeeded Hedda Harper in the gossiping world. Her column can be read in the New York Daily Time. Her assistant is none other than Cynthia Blaylock.

Maggie Scheper is now matron of the Old Folks Home for women, located 20 miles from no where. Chittlingswitch, Ga.

Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Brenston formerly Hazel McGregor has decided to reside in Brazil to raise coffee.

Leroy Williams is now a successful minister in Pennsylvania. His most famous text was "Who Threw The Whiskey In The Well". His faithful deacons are Theodore Allen and David Battle. Charles Driskell has also been converted.

David Carter has won World wide fame as the greatest baritone artist of his time. He is also successfully married to Isabelle Spaulding who accompanies him at the piano.

Sarah Hadley has now become sole heir of the Peanut Butter and Syrup Factories in Cairo, Ga.

Ann Epps and Inez Mullins have finally settled down to a quiet life and are now teaching Home Economics in Macon, Ga.

John Camper is now President of our own Alma Mater, Georgia State College. Some of his Faculty Members are: Henry Watson, Mathematics; Percy Binford, Music Director; Edward Crawford, Dean of Men; James McMullins, Economics and James Hughes, Dean of Administration.

John Cook and Grady Latimer are Attornies at Law in Huston, Texas.

Elease Caves and Emolean Holsey are both instructors in a two teacher school at Lone Star, Ga. Elease Caves is Principal and Emolean Holsey, her assistant.

Juanita Jackson, now Mrs. Frank Elliot is trying to establish an Institution in Adrain, Ga. with the assistance of her husband.

Odessa Shanks is now co-starring with Will Robinson in the picture, titled, "Taps in Disguise".

Not knowing the where a bouts of our other classmates, I will close, as it is said "All good things must come to an end".

Yours truly, Doris

Last Will and Testament

We the Senior Class of '47 of Georgia State College, Industrial College, Georgia, Chatham County, do hereby make our last will and treatment on this our last day to distribute as fairly as possible our estate of talent to our many friends and beneficiaries who have helped us on our sojourn through our college life.

We, the class of '47, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make publish, and declare this to our list the will and testament made by us heretofore made by us.

Item I. To our President, Dr. Benjamin F. Hubert, we bequeath all our best wishes for health and contentment, and happiness to be found in a long life of faithful service and the supreme content that will come from the knowledge that his philosophy will help us find our places in the unknown Beyond.

Item II. To our dear faculty, we leave an increase amount of patient and faith in the impossible to be used in dealing with those who come after us.

Item III. We the class of '47 will the class of '48 our responsibility of leaving a good record behind them.

Item IV. Frank Elliot leaves his precious and expensive leather brief case to Charles Mention.

Ruby Hill leaves a pleasing personality and scholastic ability to Mary Seabrook.

Charles Julian Wills his method of shining shoes to Charles Mention.

Wilhelmena Hardyman wills her ability to get English to Ossie Ash.

Johnie M. Smith wills her dignified walk to Rosetta Griffen, hoping that she will give up the "twist" she uses.

Thelma Holland bequeaths her ability as a good office girl to Thelma Perry.

Katherine Hollamon wills her lesson plans to the Junior Class.

Mozell Collier wills her ability of getting by to those who always get caught.

Anne Luten and Sula Gamble leave their best wishes to the following members of our dear Co-ed Club: Theresa Finch, Ealine Elliot, Gladys Day, Gerline Dixon and Thelma Perry so that they may make a success of their attempts.

Edgar Prince wills his ability to "Filibust" to Benjamin Crawford, hoping that he will out talk everyone he meets.

Helen Spence wills her good times to Elizabeth Gordon, so that she may make Whispering Moss once a quarter.

Lucy Brooks wills her ability to master the first step in learning, which is attention, to Louvenia Pursnt hoping that she will stay to the point and not digress.

Earline Davis wills Jewel Thornton the ability to learn to play the clarinet, so that her music will be pleasing to the ear.

Everlyn Lois Williams wills Alma and Julia Tolbert her ability to be seen and not heard at all times.

Juanita Lampkin wills her ability to grasp accounting to Trudie Mosely so that she may complete the course satisfactorily.

Theodore Allen wills his moderate ways to Tampa Brown so that he will not go to the extreme so often.

William McMullen wills his liberalism and love for cigars to Harold Billups so that he may spend part of his subsistence check.

Richard Blaylock wills Generon Stone the ability to be a good athlete and to stop crying for awards that he doesn't deserve.

Leroy Williams wills his resistance of falling in love to Mr. Larry Young so that he will not open his heart to every fine looking young lady who comes by.

Charles Driskell wills to Onan Travers his ability to finish College in four years.

John Camper wills his headaches and heartaches to the succeeding president of the Student Council and Senior Class.

John J. Cook wills to Frank Caruthers his mediocree athletic and scholastic abilities, and Onan Travers his retiring manners with the hope that they will utilize them to the fullest extent.

James E. McMullen wills his love for politics to all of the students of Georgia State College so that all will take a deep interest in all the governmental functions that affect our welfare.

David Carter wills his ability to sing to Nathan Foster so that someday he may sing a classical tune for a change.

Wilhelmena Hardeman wills her social integrity and her fluent command of the English language to Naomi Bailey.

William L. Rivers wills to Arthur Haywood his pleasing personality and sblility to co-operate in extra-curricular activities, hoping, wishing and praying that he will use them in the coming years.

Sarah Ellen Hadley wills Josie Spencer her ability to act cool while being around young men so that it will not appear that she is too aggressive.

Edward Crawford wills his conservative ways to Billie McGee, hoping that he will make good use of them.

Henry Watson wills his reserved and unassuming personality to Mr. "Palm Beach" Wright in hopes that he will regard it, not necessarily as a gift but as a bare necessity.

Rossie Martin Willis her ability to finish to Mildred Dunson, hoping that she will not stay at Georgia State over four years.

Rosetta Booker wills her quiet and unassuming ways to Naomi Bailey so that she may settle down to a life of quietness.

Hazel McGregor wills her ability to judge people constructively and destructively to Lizzie Tate.

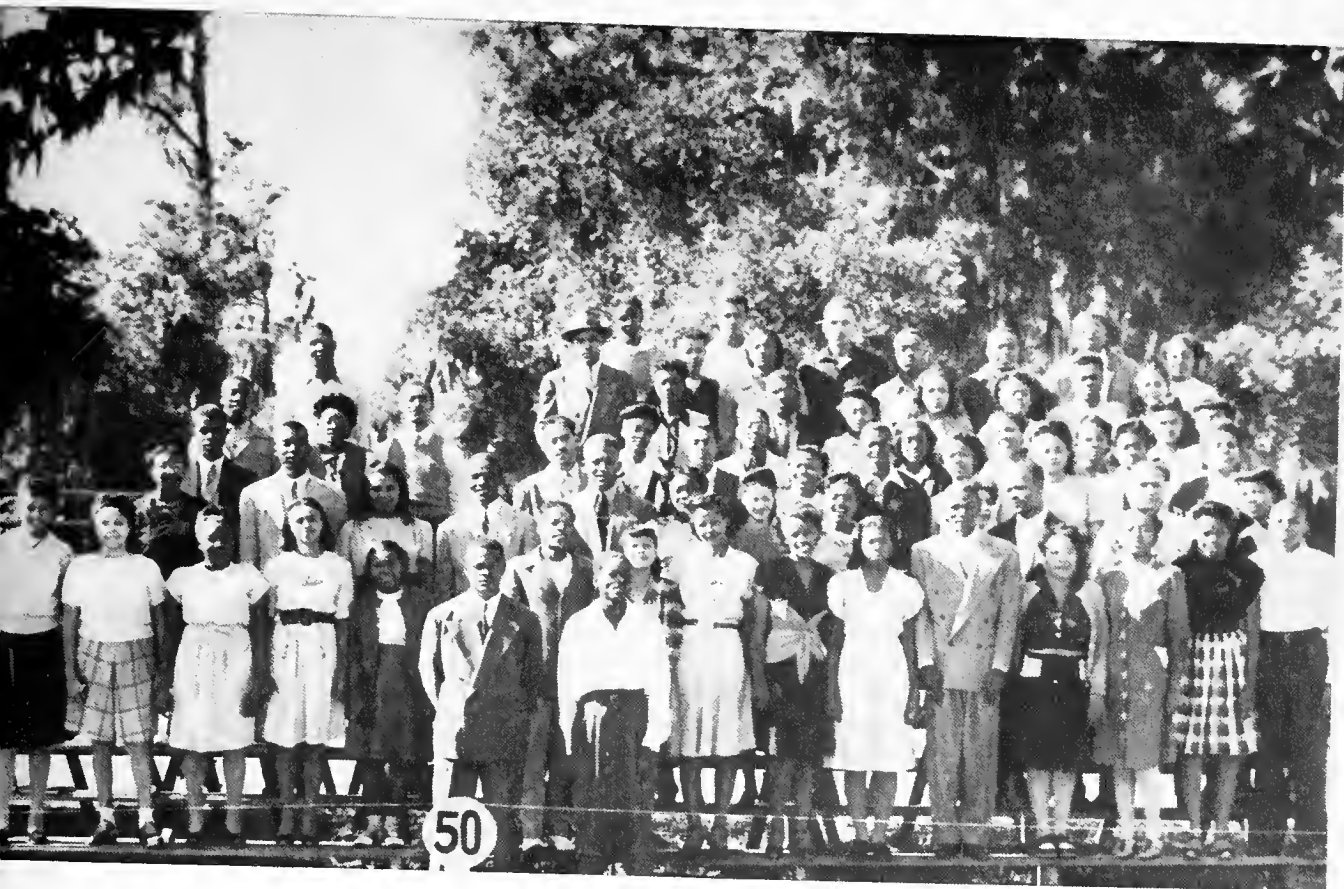

Maggie Scheper wills her ability to stay in the room to study to Iols Kensey so that she may not stay in the Co-op Shop too much.

With these gifts we, the class of '47, leave our blessings, tender memories of our pleasant associations together, and most precious of all, our places here in the hearts and thoughts of our President and Teachers.

In witness whereof, we, the class of '47, the testators, have set our hands and seal to this our last Will and Testament.
